Cookbook of the Month: A Vegan Taste of France ... In June I worked my way through A Vegan Taste of France by Linda Majzlik. This book doesn't look particularly appealing: there are no pictures, no little introductory paragraphs telling you about the origins of the recipe, no index, no separation between each step of the recipe (it's just a block of text), and the ingredients aren't even listed in the right order. A Vegan Taste of Paris + A Sneak Peek at My Vegan Europe ... Lists of local vegan brands for soy milk, almond milk, vegan ice cream, vegan yogurt, snacks, and other specialty vegan foods (plus where to find them in the grocery store) are also included, along with language tips (including phrases), and cautionary warnings for the all the hidden foods and cultural quirks you need to look out for.
